Tree Dedication from Dilly Dooley

As an Indian Hill Church member for decades, I have grown spiritually and been enriched by the many friendships I have found here.

For my memorial - and to show my appreciation to this community, I donated an Eastern Redbud, one of my favorite trees.

In the Spring of 2023, it was planted along the church driveway for all to enjoy as they enter the church property.

Dilly Dooley and her tree