Presbyterian Morning Worship

Sunday, March 6th

10:00 AM in the Sanctuary

Join us for Sunday worship, online or in the sanctuary. This is our first Sunday in Lent, and we begin with the same story to kick off that first Lenten Sunday every year: the story of Jesus's temptation in the wilderness. As Rev. Dr. Stephen Caine tells us, temptation can come in many forms; for Jesus, Satan offers him bread to satisfy his hunger, power over all the worldly kingdoms, and an easy way out of the suffering that he knows is forthcoming. As for Stephen...well. Just know that if you ever need a favor, Graeter's ice cream goes a long way.

The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

Luke 4:3-4

God of wilderness and water, your Son was baptized and tempted as we are.
Guide us through this season,
that we may not avoid struggle,
but open ourselves to blessing,
through the cleansing depths of repentance
and the heaven-rending words of the Spirit. Amen.

In the midst of the chaos in the Ukraine, there are sibling churches and ecumenical partners who are already providing assistance with basic items for survival. Initial assistance being provided includes shelter, food, clothing, blankets, baby food and diapers, other hygiene supplies, flashlights and candles, generators and fuel.

Presbyterian Disaster Assistance's first priority is to provide funding to these partners on the ground. While the scale of this crisis is new, receiving refugees from Ukraine and other countries in Central and Eastern Europe is not, which means we have trusted, established partners with the knowledge and expertise to carry out this important work. In fact, One Great Hour of Sharing — the single largest way that Presbyterians come together every year to provide hope, help and relief — was started in response to refugees coming out of Europe.

Our response to the situation in Ukraine will include both financial and technical assistance as the network of faith communities providing humanitarian assistance grows in the months ahead.
