EPISCOPAL † PRESBYTERIAN

Presbyterian Morning Worship May 1st, 2022 10:00 AM in the Sanctuary

Join us for worship, online or in the sanctuary! This week, Stephen's sermon tackles the first reading, featuring St. Paul (née Saul of Tarsus) and his fateful ride to Damascus. Everyone knows Saul...but there's another important character in the drama of his conversion: Ananais, a simple man who is given a task.

Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" | Acts 9:3-4

Mighty God,
in whom we know the power of redemption,
you stand among us in the shadows of our time.
As we move through every sorrow and trial of this life, uphold us with knowledge of the final morning when, in the glorious presence of your risen Son, we will share in his resurrection, redeemed and restored to the fullness of life and forever freed to be your people. Amen.
