Between Two Pews featuring Pastor Jeff Wilder

Welcome back to Between Two Pews, where we're learning how to pray with Pastor Jeff Wilder! Jesus instructs us in today's passage (Luke 11:1-13), "Ask, and it will be given to you." But how do we reconcile that when we don't get what we feel we need from God? How do we KNOW the difference between what we need and what we want?

THE TEXT:

He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples." So he said to them, "When you pray, say:

Father, may your name be revered as holy.

May your kingdom come.

Give us each day our daily bread.

And forgive us our sins,

for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us.

And do not bring us to the time of trial."

And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.' And he answers from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.' I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything out of friendship, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

“So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asked for a fish, would give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asked for an egg, would give a scorpion? If you, then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

ABOUT PASTOR JEFF WILDER:

Jeff Wilder is a Commissioned Minister of the Christian Church in Ohio. Born and raised in Middletown, Jeff Wilder has a true heart for the young people of this city. He has just recently began his formal education at Phillips Theological Seminary, but has had the unique opportunity to study under some of the area's great ministers and theologians. Jeff has been an active volunteer with The Boy Scouts of America for 13 years. He has been recognized as Scoutmaster of the Year, Cub Master of the Year, and Volunteer of the Year, as well as being a Vigil Honoree in the Order of the Arrow (BSA Honor Society). In 2018, Jeff was recognized by Kingswell Ministries as Man of the Year for his work with the youth in Middletown and Mason of the year for Jefferson lodge Middletown free and accepted Masons. He has previously served as an outreach minister, an elder, and a youth program coordinator. Jeff's family has absorbed his love for serving: his wife, Kelly, works as a home healthcare giver for adults with disabilities, and youngest son, Kobi, is an Eagle Scout whose Eagle project was an anti bullying campaign. They currently live in Middletown. He is also the proud father of seven, of whom son Glenn South is a missionary to turkey, daughter Courtney is a preschool teacher, and daughter Carly is a student of Cincinnati State for hospitality and business management. He is an even prouder grandfather of four. His favorite verse is, “The Lord is close to the broken-hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit” (Psalm 34:18). In ministry, as in life, Jeff has lived and ministered from the precept that God gives us: “It is okay to give the wrong person a break, but not break the wrong person.”
