EPISCOPAL † PRESBYTERIAN

Announcements for Week of October 16th

October 16th, 2022

8:00 AM - Episcopal Holy Eucharist

9:00 AM - Presbyterianism 101

10:00 AM - Kirkin' of the Tartans

Join us for Sunday worship at 8:00 for Episcopal Holy Eucharist, or at 10:00 for our Presbyterian service and the Kirkin' of the Tartans! Last week's forum, "Presbyterianism 101," was postponed due to illness; we have rescheduled it for this Sunday at 9:00.

Our Kirkin' service, which is a celebration of Scottish heritage and history, will feature live bagpipe music from Caledonia Pipes and Drums as part of the service music. You are welcome to wear or bring your tartans (and a blanket, if you wish-- it could be chilly!). We will have chairs set out on the front lawn for your comfort.

What is a Tartan and Why Does it Need 'Kirking?'

Tartan is a patterned cloth consisting of criss-crossed, horizontal and vertical bands in multiple colors. In the United States, the tartan pattern is more commonly known as "plaid." "Kirk" is a Scottish word meaning church, and in Scotland the kirk refers to the (Presbyterian) Church of Scotland. The Kirkin' uses some order from a Scottish church service, but is an American invention and was first held on April 27, 1941, by the late Dr. Peter Marshall, Scottish-born Chaplain of the U.S. Senate and minister of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, D.C.

The display of the tartans represents the Scottish Clans. The word Clan, meaning family and identity, came to be attached to the Chief of the Clan. The Parliamentary Act of 1746, following the rout in 1745 of the Jacobites and the departure of Bonnie Prince Charles, banned the kilt, plaid or any tartan garment. The bagpipes were banned as well, and effort was made to destroy Highland Clan identity. This was all part of the dispersal of the Clans and the breakup of the Clan system.

In 1822, King George IV visited Edinburgh and called all the Clan Chiefs to appear in Highland dress, and the king himself wore a kilt. Great scurrying was done to locate what tartan each chief should wear. The old sets having been lost and forgotten, new ones were developed in a hurry for the royal event.

"Kirkin' o' the Tartans," then, is a way to express the blessing ("churching") of the Scottish clans.

Open House Coffee Hour for Simon and Lucy
October 16th

Following 10:00 Kirkin' of the Tartans

After our Kirkin' celebration on the front lawn, please join us for an open house coffee hour, hosted by Vestry-Session, to welcome Rev. Simon Barnes and his wife, Lucy, who is flying in from Bath, England, to see us. All are welcome to join us and enjoy refreshments while getting to know the Barnes family. We look forward to seeing you there!

Pet Donations Needed Donations can be brought to church through the Fall Festival (10/30)

From October 2 through October 30, the youth groups are hoping you will join them in donating food, litter, treats, and toys for animals in need. Donations will go to Cincinnati Animal CARE Humane society and Stray Animal Adoption Program (SAAP). They are in need of dog and puppy food, any brand, any size bag, and the same for cats and kittens. Cat litter is also needed. Additionally, their animals are always grateful to receive toys and treats! If you would like to give a monetary donation, please make your check out to Indian Hill Church and in the memo write "CARE," and we will be happy to shop on your behalf!
